You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself in any direction you choose.
You're on your own.

My Hero

Nicholas D'Eon

To the strongest person that I know,
If you were hurting, you never let it show.
On your face you always carry a smile,
Even though you've been sick for a long while.
I love you more than words can explain,
You are my idol because you fight the pain.
On Graduation Day you are supposed to be there with me,
but in a better school, for you, is where you have to be.
You will succeed in your fight and go where you want to go and for all that Nicky, you are my HERO.

The night is young
And there's plenty to do,
It will lead on the better things
The night isn't over,
The night is young.
I will see better days to come.

I am still young
But I am not hopeless,
I will go on to the better things,
My life isn't over,
I am still young
I will see better days to come.

These were four years I can't forget. I went through many changes, and I thank my friends for helping me through it.

Tika sit down!

The last four years went by so fast with so many memories with friends that will last forever JW KY AM ED MG TC KW GM JM and for my mom and dad thanks for everything. For my girls were always there for each other and always will be 143 meg KW JB I Love u always.

My name is Christian. I am sort of a normal person with a few defects. With sugar I can go nuts. During the past couple years I think I tried a little bit hard to get where I am now, but it is all worth it. To get where I am now I always got made fun of by how skinny I was and by how hard I tried, but I like to see the guys who made fun of me in ten years. I was considered the nice guy and always tried to be one. It was really funny to see how many kids got into fights and how much drama a lot of people got into and how I had nothing to do with it. Also another good thing to see is my crazy friends Dante and Paul. My worst moment was when I joined the cross country and track team and hurt my leg twice. The students would picture me as a nice but a crazy person on how I act. What the guys remember the most was my facial expression.

Christian Carmody

Wow they weren't kidding. Senior year came fast, faster than anyone expected. What a blast the last four years has been. I met and obtained enough friends for a lifetime. I could call him any time with any problem and he would help me. I owe a thanks to my closest friends like Jerry, Tommy, Anthony, Jay, and Dave who has always been right behind me 100%. To all my friends who stayed true- Thank you for everything you have done for me; sticking by me through the good & bad, even if you couldn't be here. It looks like we're finally here. I can't even fathom the fear that our parents must be feeling, knowing that we're out of their hands. Not only have we graduated from high school but we've been accepted into the college of adulthood. Scary, right? New responsibilities have been placed upon our backs and it is now up to you wether or not you will become a functioning and educated citizen. For some of us this will be an easy task we were bred for it. Others will struggle to find identity because they never found themselves in high school. I hope we can all find success in the sun, because we're all quite capable'of succeeding . Rock on 2004. Possibilities are endless and life waits for no one. P.s. thank you mom, dad, and justin. Your support has helped me to succeed. I love you.

Jessica Malagodi

I can't believe the years have come and gone so quick. My high school years are finally over. Serena I just want to thank you. I couldn't have done it without you. I also want to thank all my friends who stuck by me and supported me in everything throughout the years. A real friend walks in when the rest of the world walks out. I love you guyz, you know how you are 143z. Jolene (Straw), Janelle (Meow) your both too funny, the talks in the car and all the funny things we said made it all worth while. And Tracey you have been more than a friend to me, you've been like the sister I never had. I love you so much 143z. I also want to thank all of my friends for being my friends and making my high school years more interesting. Good luck in the future and follow you dreams!

Alex Manoogian

These past few years can be summed up in a few words. In ones life, you can count on very few people. I've been able to count on many, but not many of them are my true friends. I've learned that when someone needs emotional support, he will befriend anyone, but the minute sum-I else comes along, your so-called friendship is history. To Christina, I would like to say thank you. I've been there for you, just as you've always been there for me. You are a true friend, and I will never forget to call you in college. To others, I only hope that in later years, you will get what you deserve. I will end this message with thanks to Dr.G and Font, and with the words of Robert Plant: "I couldn't get no silver, I couldn't get no gold, you know that we're too damn bold, to keep you from the gallows pole." Model UN, Science Club and Varsity Tennis for life!

Jonathan Martino

Alone at last, just nostalgia and I. We were sure to have a blast. I went by the place where you and I wrote our names in wet cement and for a moment remembered how it felt to have no one understand that there's this dream and they're not part of it. How soon we do forget. I never had any closer friends than the ones I had when I was young. Alone again, just you and I. Nostalgia have good-bye. I think it's time for me to go." When I look back and read this yearbook, I am not going to cringe at the remembrance of my high school years. I am going to be happy for utilizing this place to the extent that I did, absorbing all the good from every bad situation., and taking advantage of every opportunity I had to try something new. High school was a mere stepping stone for me because I know by the time I read this I will have moved on to bigger and better things. Many people have come in and out of my life during these 4yrs, some who I'll forget, some who I'll always remember. High school has prepared me for life's many unexpected challenges, and I am willing to do what it takes to make my dreams a reality. Thank you Mom. I wouldn't be who I am without your love and support. And to the rest of my family- thanks for always being there.

Melissa Parrelli

Oh my god I graduated! Knew I could do it. These have been the four weirdest years of my life. I made new friends and lost some old ones. The most important friend I made was Katie. She was there for me no matter what, and I thank her so much for all she did for me. KATIE! You're my best friend and I thank you for everything and always being there for me, and helping me through so much and I love you and I always will. I hope we can always stay involved in each others lives. To my family, I say thank you, especially to my grandparents, who took so much care of me I thank you guys for everything. The one thing about senior year I will not forget is my new little bro Weslee. The most important thing of all though is Katie, remember never give up never surrender, anything is possible if you belive!

Thomas Paul

I wish to simply thank all the teachers I had the pleasure of being taught by. Every teacher that taught me throughout my four-year high school career did a terrific job in their goal, which was to teach and make me a better human being. The two teachers who made the largest impact upon me were Mr. Brandwein and Mr. MacDonald. Both teachers were the two best teachers I've had in my school career. Both men are very intelligent men and know what they are teaching. Both men are tremendous teachers and human being. In closing, just want to thank my family and friends for being there for me. New York Yankees > Boston Red Sox

Early in the morning I've woken up for the past 4 years and loved every'moment of it. Parties, girls, sports and living life easy so I ask what not to love. What separated the class of 2004 from the rest is that we always keep the good times rolling. For the buddies, memories will never fade and for the chicks, u know who u r, whats up. In memory of #2,#4,#10 Why I did it? For the people. One more thing, Brazilian dream lives on.

Senior year wow did it come so quick. I remember at the start of my freshman year Ms. Bradbury telling u how fast it was gonna go by. Now I believe it. I would like to thank my Mom and Dad for helping me get here. Sometimes I think to myself where will I be 5 10 years down the road. The answer for that is only time can tell. I hope tho that when I get older I wanna have a good paying job. And I wanna have a boy and a girl. It's like yesterday when I was at Ballard School, getting dropped off and picked up. Now I'm driving my own car, it just makes you think back to when I was little and now it's my last year and it's time to move on and begin real life. I'm ready for it so bring it on! And good luck to the Class of 04 in whatever you do in the future.

Derek Sweeney

Well...Next to winning 10,000 dollars on a scratch ticket!!! HaHa!! Well it's finally over. Goodbye High School, and goodbye Good Luck to my fellow graduates, along with everyone who made my 3 years here fun. Yes that includes the teachers, too. Goodbye to everyone! I have spent the last three almost four years completely encompassed in my work and the school atmosphere as a whole. I've taken all the hardest classes and have participated in almost every club in the school. Through this trial and error, I have discovered that above all I am a dreamer. I want to do more with my life than is most likely possible. But I am an optimist; I'll always try to do as much as I can. I want to say to all my friends, I love you and I'll miss you. To all the teachers, thank you for enriching my imagination and for teaching me to think as an individual. Hopefully my future will be as bright as my times at Saugus High were.
